

Learn skills for motivating children to succeed

SEPTEMBER 10, 2008 12:00 AM • TIMES STAFF

MERRILLVILLE | From-the-Heart Parenting Inc. and the Gary Kennedy

Library have collaborated to bring two free parenting workshops to parents of children 10 to 18 years.

In this "heart-to-heart" workshop, participants depart with parenting skills to successfully motivate and guide children in achieving their full potential. The workshops will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. Sept. 23 and 30 at the Kennedy Library, 3953 Broadway, Gary. Workshop facilitators are Laura Wynn and Jena' Wynn-Bellezza, hosts of Urban Parenting Talk Radio on WGVE 88.7 FM.

Space is limited. Advanced registration is requested. To register, call the Kennedy Library

(Mrs. Moore) at (219) 887-8112 or FTH Parenting, Inc. at (219) 736-5493.

FTH Parenting is a nonprofit organization established in March, 2007 to educate and engage parents, community, schools, and organizations in advocating for the well-being of children and families through effective and responsible parent education. The goal is to help stop child neglect and abuse and prevent school dropout, juvenile delinquency, violence, drug misuse and out-of-wedlock pregnancies among to today's youth.
